Director's Update

Done with competitive marching

Transition into winter programs - winter guard and indoor percussion (large interest this year) -

Biasi is working out logistics and spaces for rehearsals/practices

Concert 7pm on 12/4 (get there early). All three bands play that night and it's a Friday night :)

Rehearsals taking place (not for wind ensemble since they get everything done in class)

Concert Band 12/3 from 2:30-4:00

Symphonic 12/1 from 2:30-4:00

Marching for parade

11/13 (might change depending on Football-playoff determinations)

All parade rehearsals end at 4pm

11/18 - Parade rehearsals

11/20 - Parade rehearsals

12/2 - Parade rehearsals

12/10 - Parade rehearsals

12/11 - Parade rehearsals

Honors - all district audition requirements (1st Saturday after school meets in January). Money due Wednesday 12/2. $8.00 for auditions. Clinic at the end of January with rehearsals at Apex Friendship and concert at Memorial Concert Hall.

Weekend before Thanksgiving there will be theatre showing of Peter Pan. Play version and not a musical. Tickets are going quickly!

Nutcracker will be the 2nd weekend in December. Heavily attended so get here early

Choral concerts on 12/15.

Staffing for next year's marching band.

Jesse is pulling out somewhat. He will not be the music director.

Sean moved to Virginia so that might cause us to need a new percussion director.

Linh is returning.

Young Symposium Professional in Winston Salem (Sunday through Tuesday) Avery and Amy will be shadowing music professionals.
